External Email: Use caution with links and attachments.

Good afternoon, Disha,

Answer to question #1: All DOCR housing units have air conditioning. However, we do not have a spreadsheet or electronic record indicating that.

Answer to question #2: See attached DOCR Master Building List. This contains names, addresses, age, and approximate square footage of all DOCR Buildings. We do not have the age of the RRI Warehouse and we have ever been able to find it but that is indicated on the spreadsheet.
